This is in response to the Request for Additional Information letter dated June 12, 2016. The letter requested additional information regarding one expense on the April monthly report that used the description "Consultant Expenses" for a payment to Tarbell Companies Inc. This should have stated that it was for "Strategic Consultant Expenses." Please accept this as public notice of the change in description for that entry.

In addition, none of the expenditures in either April or May for Advertising-Online, Direct Mail or Postage were for items that would constitute an independent expenditure, therefore, they do not need to be disclosed on Schedule E, line 24.
